THE RESTORATION TO GLORY

Excerpt from the Teaching on

THE RESTORATION TO GLORY

Restoration to glory is linked to the person of Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. We can see the reflection of this glory upon the earth. We need not look too far but around us to see the reflection of God's glory.

The Lord Jesus as the son of God clothed himself with the earth. God cloth himself in human flesh, meaning that he manifested himself as one of us on the earth in the person of the Lord Jesus Christ and walked amongst us. So, he manifested his heavenly glory on the earth and he transfigured at the Mount of transfiguration so that the disciples could see that he was indeed God.

I'm going to take my text reading from John 2:1-11 which talks about the first miracle Jesus did by turning water into wine. Verse 11 says, "This beginning of signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and manifested His glory; and His disciples believed in Him.

Let's look at this scripture through the eyes of God, the picture that the Lord was trying to paint for us. The six water pots are the representation of man. Man was made on the sixth day. The six water pots are a representation of man being made from the earth. We note that verse 6 explains that these water pots were made from the earth. The water the earthen pots were filled with represents the Spirit of God, the Word of God, and the Glory of God poured into human vessels so that God can manifest his glory through man on earth.

In 2 Corinthians 4:6-7 God gave a command to light to shine out of darkness and the same God has now shown in our hearts, it says, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. Verse 7 says, "But we have this treasure in earthen vessels. In John 2, Jesus was showing us like a metaphor him pouring his spirit in earthen vessels so that through him, we the called, the chosen, the ecclesia can manifest or express the fullness of his glory.

This was why the Lord Jesus Christ said, "Greater Works than these shall you do because I'm going back to the Father." But we have this treasure in earthen vessels that the excellence of the power may be of God and not of us.

Colossians 2:9 says we are complete in Christ Jesus who is the head of all the principalities and all powers. This is good news, this is restoration to glory. You and I are complete in him who put on the earthly suit, the flesh. We are complete in him because he is the head of all principalities and power. Jesus is the embodiment of the whole Trinity, the whole fullness of the godhead dwells in him (John 14:7).

The minute you accept Christ and the spirit of Christ comes into you by his Holy Spirit, you have received the glory of God, the life of God, and the spirit. Power also resides in you as a believer so, we must manifest the glory of God that is in us.

Apostle Paul could tell the Corinthians in 2 Corinthians 5:17, If any man is in Christ is a new creation, old things have passed away, behold all things have become new. The same way Mary received the word and gave birth to the glory of God, it's the same way as we receive the word and we must give birth to the glory of God.

Jesus came to establish his dominion on the earth as a king ruling over a kingdom. The establishment of his dominion is going to continue because he lives in you and me, and he has put the spirit and the power and the glory of God in each of us who has been born of him, that's why we use the word born again, we are now born of him so we carry the glory and the nature of Jesus Christ the son of the Living God.

What is God trying to accomplish through this? The scripture says the earth is waiting for the manifestation of the sons of God. The earth is waiting for you and me to reveal the glory of God. We can do this through the help of the Holy Spirit. One of his primary work in us is to bring us into that realm and dimension of his glory.

I will say that one of the strongest words spoken by the Lord Jesus Christ out of many that really caught my attention is when he said, "Repent for the kingdom of God has arrived." That means that God brought his glory upon the earth through our Lord Jesus Christ who has arrived to put things back to God's original purpose and plan. It is a statement of warfare, a statement that he has come to take charge, he has come to destroy and to take away everything that has been a hindrance to the existence of creation and to establish the culture of heaven on the earth.

When Jesus Christ has filled you and me like he filled those six water pots at the marriage in Cana and asked that it be taken to the bridegroom to drink, that means people must drink out of the glory of God that is in you and me.

Restoration to glory is God restoring all things to his original design. We are talking about men and women functioning as God ordained them to function in the capacity of a ruler, a king, a son, an authority, and as a judge upon the earth.

PURPOSE

This is a collection of stories and a conclusion you never saw coming.

Story 1:

I had a skin like no other; black and beautiful...

I had several siblings who were of different shades; Tan, Brown, etc..

From the day I was "born", I was on a shelf to showcase that unique skin type, and oh! How I strutted my stuff... I knew I was destined to be seen by the world and had every intention to milk that attention.

The nature of my gift/calling meant that I would have no issues with partnerships and even though it still required a lot of due diligence, I came from a good stock/household name and happened to have a solid base which enabled mine to be quite straightforward.

There I was at conferences and all sorts of events strutting my stuff and doing what I was born to do until I found out that I was used and dumped, not desired anymore, and placed together with some others in a place of "no longer needed". I found out that the person I was in a partnership with had a habit of wooing and dumping! It was not like I had lost any of my gravitas but all of a sudden, I moved from priority one to forgotten.

When I woke up in my cell, I realized I was not the only one this had happened to and this person(s) had a habit of wooing and losing interest especially when he/she saw someone newer/more shiny.

Story 2:

I was born to sing and oh! I could sing.

I also came from good stock/pedigree. I was told that my history could be traced directly to some famous names in the world. I had ancestors who had sang at royal courts and were paired with some of the greatest men & women who had walked this earth.

My partnerships were also critical and whenever I was paired with someone who knew music, I could make heads turn and hearts cry. It was a gift handed down and was capable of healing.

I sang for both the young and the old. It did not matter who the audience was as I genuinely just wanted to sing.

I sang for this young family for a few years and life was great until they decided they did not need me again, but they did not release me from the contract we signed. I was just there, showing up every day but not allowed to sing and there were other places where I had heard they needed healing.

I was sad, lonely, out of sight, forgotten, and given it was a long contract, also resigned. Until one day, I heard the king tell one of the family members to release me, and specifically for that other family who needed me.

Conclusion you never saw coming:

Story 1 is about your shoes/bags/clothes

Story 2 is about your instruments – e.g., keyboard

Some of you have so many shoes/bags and clothes you have not worn in months and they're taking up space in your closets. Those items will bring a smile to the faces of other people who "need" them.

This is a call to join our outreach team at The Tribe of Marketplace Ministers, a call to women and men. It is not for just one gender alone. We are asking you to give of your time and substance, to represent Jesus to young men, young women, widows, correction facilities, special learning centers, and other places chosen by the leadership as part of the great commission.

Mathew 25: 34–37:

"Then the King will say to those on his right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the creation of the world. 35 For I was hungry, and you fed me. I was thirsty, and you gave me a drink. I was a stranger, and you invited me into your home. 36 I was naked, and you gave me clothing. I was sick, and you cared for me. I was in prison, and you visited me.'

37 "Then these righteous ones will reply, 'Lord, when did we ever see you hungry and feed you? Or thirsty and give you something to drink? 38 Or a stranger and show you hospitality? Or naked and give you clothing? 39 When did we ever see you sick or in prison and visit you?'

40 "And the King will say, 'I tell you the truth, when you did it to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters, you were doing it to me!'
